Technology use

REFERENCE Policy 310 — Information Security Charter; Policy 311 — Privacy and Access to Information; A.P. 312 — Technology Acquisition and Use

The Grasslands Public Schools network and electronic equipment are provided for students to conduct research, enhance learning, and communicate with others. When using the Grasslands Public Schools network, students are expected to follow the same behavioural standards online as they would in a classroom or school hallway.

What parents and students need to know

REFERENCE Policy 310 — Information Security Charter; A.P. 327 — Security Awareness and Training

- Grasslands Public Schools uses automatic monitoring tools to support a safe and caring online environment.
- The Division reserves the right to audit student files and communications on Division technology in support of legitimate operational, safety, or educational purposes, consistent with Policy 310 and Policy 311.
- Students are responsible for any costs associated with damage they have caused to school-owned equipment or infrastructure.
- Using the Grasslands Public Schools network and equipment in a manner that does not align with expected behaviour will be addressed through the school's normal student conduct process and may result in a loss of access.
